

THE HOWARD SCHOOL

SINCE 1950

The Howard School believes that Black Lives Matter. For too long, systemic and institutional racist policies have stood in the way of racial equity in America. As an educational institution, we embrace the opportunity to be anti-racist. The Howard School believes that we together hold the power to stand up for what is right for everyone. As a No Place for Hate School, we pledge to combat bias in all forms. This call to action means we work with our community to move beyond an awareness of racism, beyond being non-racist, and actively become anti-racist. We have compiled a list of resources for families that we hope will help you as we walk the path of anti-racism together.
